

First Lady Michelle Obama Visits Riverside Elementary

Michelle Obama

First Lady Michelle Obama addressing the guests at Riverside Elementary cafeteria regarding the importance of eating fresh fruits and vegetables, and the importance of reducing childhood obesity in America

Mr. Alberto Carvalho, Superintendent of Miami Dade County Public Schools, addressing the guests in the cafeteria at Riverside Elementary

Ms. Penny Parham, Administrative Director for the Department of Food and Nutrition for Miami Dade County Public Schools introducing First Lady Michelle Obama (More...)

First Lady Michelle Obama stressing the importance of eating fruits and vegetables with students

Mrs. Obama sharing good eating habits information with Riverside Elementary students

Students enjoying the salad bar selections at Riverside Elementary cafeteria

Susan Rothstein, Wellness Coordinator and Carol Chong, Director of Food and Menu Management for the Department of Food and Nutrition accompanied by Sam Kass, White House Chef

Vegetable selections at the Riverside Salad Bar

Related Links:

<http://cbs4.com/local/michelle.obama.riverside.2.2018123.html>

http://bh.heraldinteractive.com/news/national/south/view/20101122first_lady_encourages_miami_students_to_eat_greens/srvc=news&position=also

<http://www.wsvn.com/news/articles/local/21002812143134/>

<http://www.justnews.com/news/25888861/detail.html>

<http://www.nbcmiami.com/news/local-beat/First-Lady-Pays-Visit-to-Magic-City-109855244.html>

<http://www.miamiherald.com/2010/11/22/1939150/first-mom-says-eat-your-veggies.html>

<http://www.elnuevoherald.com/2010/11/22/842217/michelle-obama-visita-escuela.html>

<http://www.theledger.com/article/20101123/NEWS/101129762/1338/NEWS00>